

Declaration of Consent

I consent voluntarily, that my person related participant data (user name, password, name, affiliation, address, telephone, email, booking option) will be used and saved to create the personal participant registration, the invoice, the booking confirmation, the participation and payment confirmation, and to generate the badge in order of the event "International Conference on Information Geometry for Data Science 2022" from Sep 19-23, 2022, under consideration of the Hamburg Privacy Act (HmbDSG).

I can revoke my consent with the effect that I cannot participate at the event.

I have the right to revoke my consent for the saving of my data at any time without giving reasons. Excluded from revocation are data that must fulfil legal storage periods and data that are necessary for the reasoning, content or change of the contractual relationship with us or that need to be saved for invoicing.

I will direct my notice of revocation to:
